Tues. week 2 yr. 9,10,11 instructions

The next several lessons will be spent looking at the main types of renewable resources. The lessons will all follow the same format. Students will be given a new sheet daily on a renewable resource. They will read it and draw a poster. This poster will include how this type of resource works, its advantages and disadvantages, an illustration and answering the question on the bottom of the page Points to Consider.