

Morality
 Morality is a person's beliefs about what is right and what is wrong. Some people believe that morality is something that we are born with, we are born knowing what is right and wrong. Others, like the philosopher John Locke believe we are born like a 'blank slate' and we learn what is right and wrong.

Assassinate	To murder someone because of their religious or political beliefs.
Morality	a person's beliefs about what is right and what is wrong.
Parable	Religious stories about what is right and what is wrong
Prejudice	To judge a person before you know them based on something like race, age or gender
Discrimination	To put your prejudice into action and treat a person badly because of their age, gender, race etc.
Segregation	The separation of people based on their race, different schools, different places to eat etc.
Martyr	Someone who is killed for what they believe in

Jesus – Man and God?
 Most Christians believe that Jesus was born 100% God and also 100% human. However we have no idea what he looked like.
God:
'I and the Father are one'
 Jesus did miracles: water to wine, fed 5,000,
Man
 Moral teacher, no proof
 Why hasn't God revealed himself again

✝ CHRISTIANITY: Morality ✝

Jesus – Moral teacher
 Jesus taught many Parables. They were to help people understand the moral way to live.

 The Good Samaritan: love your neighbour
 The Sower: you should spread the word of God
 The Lost Sheep: God cares about everyone, even if they sin
 He who lives by the sword dies by the sword – be peaceful, do not be violent

Dietrich Bonhoeffer: 1906-1945
 Bonhoeffer was a Christian priest living in Germany under the Nazis. He did not agree with Nazism. He believed Jesus' teaching that everyone was equal and should be treated as such.

 He travelled to America where he could have stayed and been safe but decided to return after two weeks as he felt that staying in his own country and helping those who were suffering was the right thing to do.

 He became part of a group that planned to assassinate Hitler. This plot was found out and Bonhoeffer was arrested and executed in 1944.

St Francis of Assisi 1181-1226

 St Francis had been a wealthy man but after being imprisoned he became inspired by the teachings of Jesus and gave all his wealth away. Many people laughed at him and mocked him for this but he still went and spent his life trying to serve God.

 He believed God 'lived in every man'. He even preached to the birds and animals.

Martin Luther King Jr: 1929-1968
 MLK Jr was born into a Christian family in Atlanta in America. At this time segregation was legal.

 MLK was inspired by the teachings of Jesus and used non-violent methods to protest against the unfair treatment of black people in America. This was called the civil rights movement.

 In 1968 he was assassinated for his beliefs.

-  • 1929
-  • 18
-  • Segregation
-  • Genesis
-  • Rosa Parks
-  • 1968

